

LAWRENCE F. HILL

Editor of Brazil

Lawrence F. Hill is Professor of History at Ohio State University where he has been since 1933. A native Texan, he received a B.S. degree from West Texas State Teachers College, his A.B., A.M., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of California.

Dr. Hill is a member of several American historical associations and the Academy of Hispanic American History.

Dr. Hill has written José De Escandín and the Founding of Nuevo Santander, Diplomatic Relations Between the United States and Brazil, and The Confederate Exodus to Latin America. He was collaborator with James A. Robertson on a memorial volume published by the University of North Carolina Press in 1942.

Photo by William Haul

ROBERT J. KERNER

*General Editor of
The United Nations Series*

Robert J. Kerner is Sather Professor of History at the University of California. He holds advanced and honorary degrees from several universities and has studied and worked in the archives in Vienna, Berlin, Moscow, and Paris. In 1917-1919 he was a member of the Staff of Experts of the Colonel House Inquiry and of the American Commission to negotiate peace.

Dr. Kerner is an outstanding authority on the history and international relations of Slavic Europe, and is a member of a number of honorary and historical Slavonic societies.

Besides many learned articles, Dr. Kerner has published a number of volumes including in recent years, Slavic Europe, Social Sciences in the Balkans and Turkey, Bohemia in the Eighteenth Century, Balkan Conferences and the Balkan Entente (with H. N. Howard), Northwestern Asia, and The Urge to the Sea.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Address: Berkeley 4

BRAZIL

Edited by LAWRENCE
F. HILL

981
H646b

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
PRESS

Edited by
LAWRENCE F. HILL

Price, $5.00

BRAZIL

Edited by

LAWRENCE F. HILL

Like the other distinguished books in the United Nations Series, this account of Brazil includes the political, diplomatic, economic, social, and cultural history of the country. Particularly, the book emphasizes Brazil's contribution to the growth and progress of South America and to world development in general.

The historical background is treated in chapters devoted to Brazil as a dependency and under the imperial regime. The proclamation of independence from Portugal in 1822 marked a turning point in the history of the country. Brazilian society acquired the responsibility for its own destiny and a set of liberal values. Subsequent chapters are devoted to political development of the republic and include a significant consideration of the Vargas regime.

Contributors next turn to social and cultural progress of the Latin American nation—social pioneering, education, science, art, music, and literature; economic developments in agriculture, industry, commerce, and finance. Finally an important section concerns Brazil's role in Latin America, her position in relation to her South American neighbors and her relations with Europe and the United States.

The various chapters have been written by outstanding Brazilians and American scholars whose major interests have long been concerned with Brazil.

Other Available Titles in The United Nations Series

AUSTRALIA, edited by C. Hartley Grattan. Traces the evolution of Australia from colony to nation. 1947. $5.00

BELGIUM, edited by Jan-Albert Goris. Chapters on history, economics, political and social development, and culture. Second printing. 1945. $5.00

CHINA, edited by Harley Farnsworth MacNair. Discusses all aspects of China's ancient and modern culture. 1946. $6.50

CZECHOSLOVAKIA, edited by Robert J. Kerner. The story of a great people, their efforts for survival, and their progress. Second printing, 1945. $5.00

THE NETHERLANDS, edited by Bartholomew Landheer. Dutch and colonial history and progress from its beginnings to the Second World War. Third printing, 1946. $5.00

NEW ZEALAND, edited by Horace Belshaw. Complete history of the country. Educational, economic and social progress, government and foreign affairs. 1947. $5.00

POLAND, edited by Bernadotte E. Schmitt. All phases of progress in Poland to 1939. Second printing, 1945. $5.00

In Preparation

MEXICO CANADA GREECE
UNITED STATES RUSSIA
KOREA YUGOSLAVIA INDIA
FRANCE

BRAZIL
Lawrence F. Hill
University of California Press
$5.00

LAWRENCE F. HILL

Editor of Brazil

Lawrence F. Hill is Professor of History at Ohio State University where he has been since 1933. A native Texan, he received a B.S. degree from West Texas State Teachers College, his A.B., A.M., and Ph.D. degrees from the University of California.

Dr. Hill is a member of several American historical associations and the Academy of Hispanic American History.

Dr. Hill has written José De Escandin and the Founding of Nuevo Santander, Diplomatic Relations Between the United States and Brazil, and The Confederate Exodus to Latin America. He was collaborator with James A. Robertson on a memorial volume published by the University of North Carolina Press in 1942.

Photo by William Hail

ROBERT J. KERNER

*General Editor of
The United Nations Series*

Robert J. Kerner is Sather Professor of History at the University of California. He holds advanced and honorary degrees from several universities and has studied and worked in the archives in Vienna, Berlin, Moscow, and Paris. In 1917-1919 he was a member of the Staff of Experts of the Colonel House Inquiry and of the American Commission to negotiate peace.

Dr. Kerner is an outstanding authority on the history and international relations of Slavic Europe, and is a member of a number of honorary and historical Slavonic societies.

Besides many learned articles, Dr. Kerner has published a number of volumes including in recent years, Slavic Europe, Social Sciences in the Balkans and Turkey, Bohemia in the Eighteenth Century, Balkan Conferences and the Balkan Entente (with H. N. Howard), Northwestern Asia, and The Urge to the Sea.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Address: Berkeley 4

BRAZIL

A stylized landscape illustration on a yellow background. It features a large, dark, undulating shape representing a hill or cloud in the upper half. Below it, there are smaller, dark shapes representing mountains or clouds, with one peak highlighted in green. The bottom of the illustration shows a green area, possibly representing a body of water or a field.

Edited by
LAWRENCE
F. HILL

981

H646b

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
PRESS

A stylized landscape illustration on a green background. It features dark, undulating shapes representing hills or mountains. The illustration is partially obscured by the text and the white label above it.

BRAZIL

Edited by

LAWRENCE F. HILL

BRAZIL

BRAZIL

Edited by

LAWRENCE
F. HILL

981

H646b

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

Edited by

LAWRENCE F. HILL